February 22 – 24, 2007
Louisville, Kentucky

*Co-Sponsored by:
Highland Presbyterian Weekday School and Second Presbyterian Weekday School*

This two and a half day Institute is a unique opportunity to journey with other early childhood professionals working with limited resources, complex issues and a dream to delve deeper in our professional growth via:

- Materials
- Observation
- Documentation
- Reflection
- Dialogue

With a daily format of morning and afternoon presentations, followed by small group dialogue and activities with a facilitator, join us as we...

- Re-examine the teaching and learning process for children and teachers
- Re-visit the role of the environment to invite children to meaningful experiences
- Explore parallel learning experiences for adults and children by providing opportunities for multiple learning styles, growing relationships, observing the natural world and celebrating the arts
